

TEXAS REAL ESTATE COMMISSION TO SELECT TWO MEMBERS OF BROKER-LAWYER COMMITTEE

Two broker members will be appointed to the important Texas Real Estate Broker-Lawyer Committee by the Texas Real Estate Commission at its meeting in Austin on September 10, 2001. Individuals wishing to be considered for appointment should send a letter expressing interest (and include a resume) to C. Michael Brodie, Chairman, Texas Real Estate Commission, Post Office Box 12188, Austin, TX 78711-2188. All letters of interest should be received by Chairman Brodie no later than August 31, 2001.

The Texas Real Estate Broker-Lawyer Committee consists of six members appointed by the commission and six attorneys appointed by the President of the State Bar of Texas. Members serve for six years and receive travel reimbursement for attendance at three or four meetings per year, normally held in Austin. The Broker-Lawyer Committee is responsible for drafting and revising contract forms which are then recommended to the Commission for adoption. The terms of two current members, Fred Blair of Dallas and Randy McKechnie of Arlington expire on September 1, 2001.
