Austin, TX – The Texas Appraiser Licensing and Certification Board (TALCB) announced new Mentors and Peer Investigative Committee members at its February meeting.

The Peer Investigative Committee (PIC) is a way for experienced appraisers to serve the public interest and contribute to the appraisal profession. PIC members are appointed by the Chair of the Board and PIC is under the statutory authority of the Board. Each PIC consists of one appraiser PIC member who will complete the initial investigation and one appraiser member of the Board who acts as coordinator and validates the investigation results. The 2015 PIC members are:

Glenn Garoon	Gregory Stephens
Robert F. Hetrick	Deloris Kraft-Longoria
Peter Mark Loftus	James Melvin Synatzske
Jim D. Pearson	John H. Dorie
Dane Sever	James (Tony) Pistilli
Gregory Robert Reynolds	Pamela Teel

TALCB Mentors are certified Texas appraisers who are also certified as USPAP instructors and are in good standing with the agency. Mentors are appointed by the Board and must be able to effectively communicate real estate appraisal practices, skills, and methods with an appraiser in an effort to improve the individual's skills as a real estate appraiser. The 2015 Mentors are:

Bobby Crisp	James (Tony) Pistilli
Paul Hornsby	Dane F. Sever
Deloris Kraft-Longoria	Greg E. Stephens
Peter Mark Loftus	James Synatzske
Jim D. Pearson	Pamela Teel

Contact information for Mentors and PIC members, as well as the latest information on TALCB, is available on the TALCB website: www.talcb.texas.gov.
